Sonic Bothy – Open Sessions PRN 393/18	To deliver musical skills open sessions at Glasgow City Halls from September 2020 – March 2021 for 96 participants of which 60% reside within Glasgow i.e. 58 people. It is anticipated that 17 local people (28%) from ward 15 will participate in the proposed activity. This application was previously deferred pending further information specific to Maryhill, namely how would it be guaranteed that 17 participants would come from Maryhill? The applicant advises: “Our contact with participants and referring organisations in Calton and Maryhill over the past month has confirmed that people with additional learning support needs are feeling very isolated and very much want to take part in online activities that can connect them to friends and their interest in music. Through Mungo Foundation and East Park, Sonic Bothy has identified participants from the local areas of Calton/Maryhill.” Costs include :	£10,845 £1,695 match funding from The Robertson Trust	£9,150 Calton Area Partnership also to consider an award of 3,953	Consider an award of £1,537 pro rata for eligible items only. subject to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1.
